USM Number: 18965-042

Gregory S. Park

Defendant's Attorney

THE DEFENDANT:

 pleaded guilty to count(s) 1 and 4 of the Indictment pleaded nolo contendere to count(s) _____ which was accepted by the court. was found guilty on count(s) _____ after a plea of not guilty.

The defendant is adjudicated guilty of these offenses:

Title & Section	Nature of Offense	Offense Ended	Count
18 U.S.C. §§ 3 and 1951	Accessory After the Fact to Hobbs Act Robbery and Murder	05/15/2020	1
18 U.S.C. §§ 2, 922(g)(1) and 924(a)(2)	Aiding and Abetting Possession of a Firearm by a Prohibited Person	05/15/2020	4

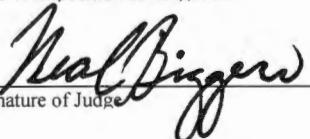

The defendant is sentenced as provided in pages 2 through 7 of this judgment. The sentence is imposed pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984.

 The defendant has been found not guilty on count(s) Counts 2, 3, and 5 are dismissed on the motion of the United States.

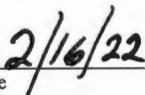

It is ordered that the defendant must notify the United States attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of name, residence, or mailing address until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments imposed by this judgment are fully paid. If ordered to pay restitution, the defendant must notify the court and United States attorney of material changes in economic circumstances.

At sentencing, the defendant's attorney stated on the record that the defendant may wish to appeal her sentence. If the defendant is indeed aggrieved by her sentence, her attorney may file a motion for reconsideration with this court and state the basis for the motion for the court's reconsideration of said sentence so that the court may consider the motion along with the government's response thereto, prior to appeal.

DEFENDANT: Xaveriana Cook
CASE NUMBER: 3:20CR00039-001IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of: 84 months on Counts 1 and 4 of the Indictment, to be served concurrently.

The court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:
The defendant be housed at a BOP facility equipped for new/expectant mothers

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

The court overrules the defendant's motion, made at sentencing, to be released on bond until after the birth of her third child, due in March 2022. On July 28, 2020, the court granted the defendant's motion to be released on bond until trial and ordered her to strict home confinement based in large part on the fact that she was then pregnant with her second child. After the birth of that child and prior to trial, the defendant advised the court of her intent to change her plea to guilty, and said plea was accepted by the court at a hearing on August 2, 2021. The defendant was sentenced on February 7, 2022. The defendant is now pregnant again and at her sentencing hearing offered the current pregnancy as a ground for continued release on bond. The current pregnancy was achieved while the defendant was on bond under strict home confinement. The court is unconvinced that this action by the defendant of presenting herself before the court on two successive occasions with two successive pregnancies is not a ploy on the part of the defendant to extend her release, and the court is unpersuaded that if the defendant is allowed bond again, she will not attempt yet another pregnancy to extend her release indefinitely. She is therefore remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

The defendant shall surrender to the United States Marshal for this district:

at _____ a.m. p.m. on _____.

as notified by the United States Marshal.

The defendant shall surrender for service of sentence at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons:

before 2 p.m. on _____.

as notified by the United States Marshal.

as notified by the Probation or Pretrial Services Office.

DEFENDANT: Xaveriana Cook
CASE NUMBER: 3:20CR00039-001STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.
